CALLING ALL SPORTS TEAMS, OFFICES, COMMUNITY GROUPS.....Cornwall Hospice Care Needs You!

A Cornish Charity is looking for groups to take part in a team building exercise, with a difference, by entering an 'It's a Knockout' challenge..

Organiser Rose Wiltshire, said:" If you and your friends are game for a laugh we would love to hear from you. Inflatable sumo wrestling and other wacky activities will be part of the fun-filled day and we are looking to recruit teams for the event on July 24 at the Royal Cornwall Showground, Wadebridge. "

Teams can be from 6 to 10 people and will compete against each other in a variety of wacky inflatable games to decide who will be the Ultimate Knockout Champion!

Registration is £10 per person, and each team member is asked to raise a minimum of £30 per person in sponsorship. This will go to Cornwall Hospice Care to help to provide specialist care to the people of Cornwall living with life limiting illnesses.

The Knockout Team Challenge will take place at Cornwall Hospice Care's family fundraising fun day 'The Grand Day Out' on 24th July at the Royal Cornwall Showground, which as well as the competition will feature a large Cornish craft fair, antiques market, vintage boutique, children's activity centre and licenced bar.

Places are limited so teams or individuals are asked to contact Cornwall Hospice Care on 01726 66869 or email rwiltshire@cornwallhospice.co.uk

Cornwall Hospice Care provides specialist clinical care to patients with life-limiting conditions at its two hospices and in other health care settings. It costs nearly £6 million annually to run its services, the majority of which comes from the public's support.
